MARK PIPER,)
Defendant.)

The Court has received the 2nd Revised Presentence Investigation Report and Addendum ("PSR"), and the Defendant's objections (two separate ECF filings) and accompanying brief (Filing Nos. 170 and 176). The government adopted the PSR (Filing No. 175)¹. See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's objections to the Revised Presentence Report (Filing Nos. 170 and 176) will be heard at the sentencing hearing;
2. The Court intends to adopt the PSR in all other respects;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

¹The Court advises that the standing order referenced by the government in Filing No. 90 was rescinded on August 6, 2004. (See District Court's webpage: <http://www.ned.uscourts.gov/>.) In the future, parties should follow the deadlines set forth in the Court's Order on Sentencing Schedule filed in the case.

4. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 3 of this Order, these tentative findings are final; and

5. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing.

DATED this 7th day of October, 2014.
